

All lots will be offered and sold subject to the Conditions of Sale. By bidding at auctions, bidders are bound by the Conditions, as amended by any announcements and notices at the time of sale, which together form the contract of sale. All items will be available for online inspection prior to sale. Description or photographs of lots are not warranties. It is the sole responsibility of the buyer to carefully inspect value and any other determinative factor. The information contained in the catalogues should be considered as mere guidelines and is in no way binding. Each lot is sold "as is" "where is". All sales are final. Artist's names, signatures do not carry warranty and are not guaranteed unless Certificate of Authenticity accompanies lot. All bids are subject to a non-refundable 23% buyer's premium, which shall be paid as part of the purchase price. Invoices will be sent via e-mail to winning bidders after the sale has ended.

Should items be returned to the Astero due to incorrect delivery address provided or the absence of the buyer to collect the parcel, the buyer will be obligated to make a 2nd payment for shipping and will be liable for other fees and taxes that were associated with the lots being directed back.
